Washington, December 23.—This morning Guiteau, without any show of excitement, said:

It is said that I have been abusing Seville. Now the fact in the matter is I want to make a speech about that. Seville is doing very well in this case considering his theory, but he is not a criminal lawyer. He is a fine examiner of titles. He had expected from your abstracts of titles, but I cannot have Seville here compromising my case. There is no lawyer in this court room but that knows he has asked questions for the defense which has been a positive injury to the defense. I cannot sit here when my life is at stake and let him compromise my case in this way. My friend Charles H. Reed, who was for twelve years district attorney at Chicago, and a first-class lawyer, has very kindly consented to assume charge of this case and I introduce him to your honor and the jury and the American people. He is a good fellow. Seville is a good fellow, too, and I want him to continue in the case and help in every way.

Seville immediately arose to a personal explanation, stating the difficulties under which he had labored and his disappointment at not receiving the assistance he had expected from certain eminent counsel. He asked if the court would pass upon the propriety of Reed assuming active duties as associate counsel in this case.

Judge Porter thought it would be entirely out of place for the court to be asked to rule upon such a proposition, and, speaking for the prosecution, promised no objection to Reed and no criticism of his course in becoming counsel for the defense.

Judge Cox: I think that is sufficient. I have privately stated that I saw no objection to such a course as Reed's participation.

Col. Corkhill: It is absurd to ask about it. Reed has been assisting all the way through and has not been out of sight of the court room.

Read, quickly.—That is not true, Mr. Corkhill.

Guiteau:—Oh, Corkhill can't tell the truth, anyway. Reed has quietly assisted for justice, as scores of lawyers have done in the interest of truth and justice. That is what they are here for.

After some discussion between the counsel relative to stating a certain portion of Dr. Diamond's testimony, Corkhill was about to call a witness when Guiteau broke out:

There is a vast amount of rubbish getting into this, but that has nothing to do with the condition of my mind on the 24 of July. You can't tell what is going on in that foreman's mind or Judge Cox's. How can you tell what was in my mind on the 24 of July. All this nonsense is about whether I'm insane, or was five years ago, has nothing to do with this case whatever. If I can't get justice here, I expect an act of God for my protection. He has taken away the wife of one of the jurors, for which I am very sorry, and if necessary he will take one of the jurors right out of the box to save my life in the interest of truth and justice.

Seville explained in regard to the letter of Dr. Spitzka, opened and commented upon yesterday by Guiteau. He stated the letter was addressed to him (Seville) and not to the prisoner. He knew it would be commented upon by the prosecution that Spitzka had written to a man who he had said under oath was insane, and he (Seville) desired the court and jury should understand just how it occurred.

WM. A. EDWARDS.

Clerk in the office of Shaw said he heard the conversation in which Guiteau told Shaw that he would kill some big man some day as Booth did. This contradicts Shaw's testimony that nobody was present at the interview, but he maintained his facts were correct.

The prisoner attempted to involve the witness in fraudulent real estate transactions, and Seville tried to quiet him, when Guiteau retorted:

I know what I'm doing. I will take my chance on getting the laugh on him. This whole thing is a lie. My counsel takes it too seriously. It is a lie but let it go. This fellow ten years ago was a clerk on eight dollars a week. The idea that I should consult him in big real estate transactions. Such nonsense as this follows. It is absurd and Judge Cox ought to kick him off the stand.

DR. S. H. TALCOTT.

Medical expert from Middletown, New York, had treated over one thousand insane persons, and had observed Guiteau closely, and assuming that he told the truth regarding the shooting and his life, I should say he was sane on July second.

How much do you expect to get for that opinion? he shouted Guiteau. You have been here two or three weeks, and

I suppose you will want five hundred dollars, but I don't care a snap if you bring me a hundred such witnesses.

Judge Cox demanded him to keep quiet.

All right, your honor. I will be quiet now.

Davidge—Your honor, please note free agency quoted by the prisoner. It operates all right, and he can keep quiet now when he desires.

Guiteau—I don't pretend I'm insane now, any more than you are; but on the second of July, and for thirty days before, I was insane, and that's the issue.

Then if you are sane now you should know how to behave yourself.

Guiteau—I do, and I behave just as well as you do. I appear as my own counsel, and have as much right to talk as you have. You have altogether too much to say in this case. You are as bad as a man born with the diarrhoea. Now you keep quiet and let the prisoner act under an insane delusion when he shot the President, and if by inspiration was meant a happy thought to commit the act, then he was inspired. In any other sense he was not.

Recess.

DR. HENRY P. STEARNS.

Superintendent of the Hartford University, for instance, was the next witness. From eight hundred to one thousand cases of insanity had come under his supervision during the eight years he had been connected with the institution. The witness had made four examinations of the prisoner at the jail, directed to the physical and mental condition of Guiteau.

Guiteau interrupted by saying, "You came to me doctor as a friend and I supposed you were going to testify for the defense, talked very freely with you about my religious feelings and all about myself. But Corkhill's money was too much for you. I want to say here, that I don't pretend that I am any more insane at this minute than Davidge. I won't say Corkhill, for I think he is cracked. (Laughter.) But I rest my case right on this claim, that I was insane on the second of July, when my inspirations and state of my mind inspired me upon the President. To make it short, that is all there is about it. I don't care what these experts say about my sanity now, that is got nothing to do with it."

The witness detailed at great length the results of his examinations and interviews with Guiteau. Pending cross examination the court adjourned until to-morrow.

Foreign.PEGOTT'S LETTER.

Dublin, Dec. 23.—Pegott, the former proprietor of the Dublin Irishman, published a letter in which he says Fenianism is practically extinct in America and in Ireland and nearly so in Great Britain. That the no rent manifesto has caused such a ruin upon the resources of the land league that they must soon be exhausted and that prohibition of a no rent policy in Great Britain will lead to such exasperation that there will be no organized attacks on the military and police, which attacks can be effectually stamped out and the league with them.

INDUSTRIAL EXPOSITION.

It is stated the Industrial Exhibition will probably be held at Belfast, as a demonstration of loyalty.

SEIZURE OF PAPERS.

The police have seized three hundred copies of the United Ireland dated December 22nd, in various parts of the country, they having a Dublin imprint. It is stated they were printed in the Abby street office, where some of the copies were seized. The police deny this, but refuse to say where the paper was printed.

TO TAKE EFFECT IMMEDIATELY.

Berlin, December 23.—The most stringent rules for greater security in theatres against fire will take immediate effect.

REVOLUTION.

An alarming revolution is reported to have broken out at Jerez, Caceres, and Saint More. President Solomon with a strong force landed at Saint More and quelled the uprising there after one hundred and fifty men had been killed on both sides. The government houses were sacked, and other houses burned. President Solomon returned to Port au Prince to obtain reinforcements.

TWO WAR SCHOONERS.

Santo Domingo, December 14.—The news that a United States war steamer will survey Samaná bay caused so much excitement that the authorities have prepared two war schooners from Capatzen to watch the American man-of-war.

Revolutionary movements have broken out at Santiago, and President McCreary, then at Puerto Plata, started to Santiago with five hundred men.

FIRE.

Eleven houses at Bani burned causing losses estimated at $225,000. No insurance.

MEN ASKED FOR.

Caracas, Venezuela, Dec. 11.—President Gozman Blanco asked the Legislature for authority to organize a force of 2,500 men to suppress the threatened revolution.

WILL JOIN IN HOLY WAR.

Madrid, December 23.—A dispatch from Tangiers says the troops dispatched to Morocco by the emperor have joined the French. They subsequently defeated the tribes who refused to join them. The revolt is spreading and the emperor has neither the requisite means nor prestige to suppress it.

Washington Notes.

Washington, Dec. 23.—Gen. Crook has arrived here to look after his chances for promotion in the event of General McDowell being retired. The event is not likely to happen for some time.

Kasson will be chairman of the committee on the inter-oceanic canal, a committee which will surely be authorized by a resolution now pending. It is believed it will be one of the leading committees in the House, because the ship railroad commission is expected to be here in full force.

All executive departments will be closed on Monday next and January 2.

The Alaska Fined On.

Washington, December 23.—A private letter received in this city yesterday from South America states that rumors are rife there that the United States steamer Alaska has been fired into and struck twice, damaging her so seriously that she had to return to Callao for repairs. Neither the State Department nor the Navy Department have received any information on the subject and the report is discredited.

The Frightened Wretch.

Washington, Dec. 23.—Yesterday when Guiteau was opening his mail and commenting on it and said, "I opened my mail for the first time this a. m., and there was only one crink letter in the whole lot. That is a good showing. People are learning and are beginning to look on me as great man. I don't care a snap whether I am a great man or a little man. I know one thing, however; I am getting more popular. I'm getting up, etc. There was a kind of an interruption that did not please Guiteau. He showed his craven fear and turned deadly pale when a tall, lean, lank, raw-boned man, with lantern jaws and iron-gray beard, who looked as if he might be a Georgia or a Vermont crank, stood up in the audience about ten feet behind the prisoner and acted as if about to move forward. Guiteau became very nervous and Mr. Seville and wife, who usually bear excitement of the court room with composure, also seemed somewhat startled. The bailiffs in charge of Guiteau, quickly shouted, "Sit down, sir! Sit down!" It appears that the man simply wished to change his position.

Stocks.

New York, Dec. 23.—In the stock market today there was an unsettled feeling, but the only decline was Northern Pacific preferred 34, but it immediately advanced 2 per cent. In the afternoon there was a further decline from 92 1/2 to 84 1/2 making an entire drop of 8 per cent. Other stocks declined in sympathy, but in the late dealings there was a steady advance of 1/2 @ 3/4.

The Denver & Rio Grande and Northern Pacific, were the chief factors in the closing as firm. Up to noon 300,000 changed hands.

The statements of the Vanderbilt roads demoralized stocks because they showed the damage done by railways. These factions have been already discredited by insiders. It is now, that the recent down turn is stopped for the present.

Small Pox.

Chicago, Dec. 23.—Health Commissioner Dewell, learning that the steamer Westphalia had just arrived from New York with 1,300 immigrants infected with small pox, has requested medical officers in charge of the New York quarantine to detain the whole load for fourteen days, and to protest against their immediate passage to the northwest. The commissioner says he will protect Chicago in the premises, and calls upon the State board of health to act. Secretary Rouch sustains De Wolf, and notifies the New York officials and railway officials that these people will not be allowed to enter Illinois until the proper time has expired.

False Rumors.

Washington, Dec. 23.—Commodore Walker, chief of the bureau of navigation and hydrography, has just reported that the Alaska has been fired on as absurd, and that if there was any foundation for it the navy department would have been informed long before this. The rumor reported came by letter, whereas the indignation of the naval authorities, if there had been any truth in it the fact could easily have been communicated by telegraph.

Injunction Issued.

Chicago, Dec. 23.—Judge McCreary issued an injunction restraining the Iron Mountain railway from substituting the Wagner for the Pullman sleepers on that road. The case will be argued in the future in St. Louis. The Iron Mountain proposed to put Wagner cars on the Texas Pacific, International and the Great Northern, and the distribution was to begin to-night, but Judge McCreary has blocked the scheme. Jay Gould is in correspondence with the subject with his agents and officers here, and will, it is said, make a bitter fight.

Choice of the Monopolists.

Chicago, December 23.—The Times says one of the most formidable railroad lobbies ever known at Washington is laying plans for the opening of the Indian Territory. It was this combination, marshalled by Don Cameron, which made Keifer Speaker of the House. For Secretary of the Interior. Chaffee would be the choice of the entire band of monopolists.

Fled Articles of Incorporation

San Francisco, Dec. 23.—To-day articles of incorporation of the Oceanic Steamship Company were filed for the purpose to conduct a general passenger and freight business between San Francisco and the Hawaiian Islands and other ports on the Pacific Ocean and elsewhere. The incorporators are Charles Goodell, Claus Sprakles, Jas. McFremery, E. L. G. Steele, A. L. Tubbs, Gustav T. Fenchel, and A. Sprakles. The capital stock is $2,500,000.

Grants Them Leave.

Washington, Dec. 23.—Applications having been made by certain midshipmen at the naval academy for leave of absence during Christmas for a holiday, the Secretary decided that such students as desire to visit Washington on Christmas may be granted leave of absence from Sunday morning till Monday evening, and no more.

Transfer of the Florida Central.

Jacksonville, Florida, December 23.—The Leagle interest in the Florida Central railway was to-day sold to Sir Edward J. Reid, an English capitalist. The transfer gives Sir Edward the controlling interest in the Florida Central of which he was to-day elected President.

No Advice From DeLong.

Burlington, Ia., Dec. 23.—Up to this hour Mr. DeLong has received no advice different from those already given to the public. It is believed that it will be some time before DeLong's party can be heard from after the relief party reaches them.

Pipe Line Completed.

New York, Dec. 23.—A dispatch received at the office of the company in this city to-day states that the pipe line will be completed Thursday, and water turned into the mains.

Mining Stocks.

New York, December 23.—Mining stocks today were very active and irregular.

Robinson declined to $2.00 and closed at $2.02. State Loans, numbers two and three, rose from $1.30 to 1.60 and closed at $1.55.

Negro Rioters' Trial.

Meridian, Miss., December 23.—The trial of the negro rioters is proceeding, and the testimony is pretty strong against them.

Stock Market.

New York, Dec. 23.—Silver bars 1.12. Money, 6's, governments, steady. Stocks firmer; Western Union, 70 1/2. Pacific, 40. Mariposa, 4. Wells, Fargo & Co. 1.35. New York Central 1.33 1/2. Erie, 41 1/2. Panama, 2.55.

More Forgery.

Newark, N. J., December 23.—More forgery by Auditor Palmer is coming to light.

Class in geology. "Who can tell me anything about a strat?" asked the teacher. Boy—I heard my dad say last night that it beat two pair."

A wit recommends that the pitcher which has remained in an Amherst family unbroken for 125 years, should be engaged to a Boston nine.

W. A. Crofut was shocked at the nudity which he saw in Naples, and he is a newspaper man who always had free passes to every variety show that came along. It must be awful over there.—Detroit Free Press.

Masonic Grand Lodge.

At the session of the Grand Lodge at Las Cruces the following officers for the ensuing year were elected:

Worshipful Grand Master, Henry L. Waldo, Santa Fe; Deputy Grand Master, Geo. J. Dinkel, Las Vegas; Senior Grand Warden, A. J. Fountain, Las Cruces; Junior Grand Warden, W. B. Childers, Albuquerque; Grand Treasurer, Secretary Ritch, Santa Fe; Grand Secretary, David J. Miller, Santa Fe; Grand Lecturer, Louis Sulzbacher, Las Vegas; Grand Marshall, W. McClure, Las Vegas; Grand Stewards, Wm. C. Hazleton, Albuquerque, and N. Raymond, Paraje; Grand Sword Bearer, Mr. Whitcomb, Albuquerque; Grand Senior Deacon, A. Z. Huggins; Grand Junior Deacon, Charles Wildenstein, Watrous; Grand Tyler, Christian Duper, Las Cruces.

The members of the lodge who attended from this city are profuse in their thanks to the Aztec Lodge No. 3, and also to the people of Las Cruces for the kind treatment and hospitality which they received. The fine ball and banquet given by the Aztec Lodge on Wednesday evening was a most enjoyable affair.

The Las Vegas Lodge is in a flourishing condition. A fine building will be erected just as soon as arrangements can be made, not later than the spring. Geo. J. Dinkel has offered to donate two lots at the foot of Douglas avenue, near the academy, for the purpose. The cost of the building will be met by private subscriptions.

The Silver City Lodge, No. 465, A. F. and A. M., will apply to the Grand Lodge, now in session at Las Cruces, for a new charter, and will surrender the old charter from the Missouri Grand Lodge, under which it has thus far been working. This is healed the unfortunate difference between Missouri and New Mexico, the former having acknowledged its error and advised Silver City Lodge to acknowledge the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of New Mexico.—Lone Star.

Dr. Lapham will take charge of the postoffice on the first of the new year. His bond for $10,000 has been filed and will be forwarded immediately to Washington. The office will probably be located in one of the new buildings now under way on Main street, and adjoining the News office. Dr. Lapham will have one of the neatest and best arranged offices in the Territory, which will be quite an improvement upon the present cramped up quarters.—Socorro News.

One of the prominent citizens of Socorro had been missing wood from the wood pile in the rear of his house, and decided upon a plan to detect the culprit. He loaded a stick with powder and awaited developments. One morning soon after he heard an explosion in a neighbor's house, and rushing over, found the stove burst open, and things in a bad state of affairs. The scheme might be used to advantage in this city.

Las Vegas deserves credit for the way she stands up to her local papers. The citizens of that city appreciate what their newspapers are doing for the place and give them a generous support. If a man there has nothing but a last, a pegging all and a waxed end he advertises his business and pays for it. Las Vegas does not look upon her papers as a charity to be grudgingly maintained.—Tri-Valley News.

Miss Amanda Kemman died in La Grange, Ill., a Chicago suburb, on December 12. It will be remembered that Miss Kemman, in an advanced stage of consumption, came to Las Vegas with her mother several months ago, with hopes of being cured. The disease was too far advanced, however, and she returned home to die a few weeks ago.
